

McNeese State University Support Services

The following free support services are available to all enrolled students. These services are in place to help you achieve your educational goals. You are strongly urged to use these services as needed.

Write to Excellence Center (WTEC) Kaufman Hall room 115 337-562-4205 1-800-622-3352 ext. 4205 www.mcneese.edu/writingcenter	The WTEC offers feedback on written work to help students become better writers. The staff does not proofread or correct writing, but they do review the writing, discuss it, and give suggestions on how to make it stronger.
The Literature Lab (inside the WTEC)	Tutors help students learn to annotate and create useful notes on readings; understand literary terms, techniques, and concepts; decipher poetic and/or archaic language; identify central themes and issues; and locate where problems of misinterpretation arise.
Tutoring Center Kirkman Hall 129 acc.mcneese.edu/ttcenters	The Tutoring Center offers free tutoring in math and science areas. Visit their website for scheduling information.
Student Health Services Watkins Infirmary 337-475-5748 1-800-622-3352 ext. 5748 www.mcneese.edu/healthservices	Student Health Services offers acute medical care for students. Nurses are on duty, and doctors maintain office hours on the premises.
The Counseling Center Kaufman Hall Room 112E 337-475-5136 www.mcneese.edu/counseling	The Counseling Center assists students with personal development and mental health needs. Types of problems addressed are:   Alcohol/Drug Abuse Job Related Stress Marital/Family Academic Psychological   Career Decisions/Choices Study Skills Improvement Emotional/Personal Adjustment Stress Management Others
The Office of Disability Services Drew Hall 200 337-475-5916 337-562-4227 TDD 1-800-622-3352 ext. 5916 www.mcneese.edu/ods	The Office of Disability Services provides academic support services for emotionally, physically, and learning impaired students and accommodations for all enrolled disabled students as recognized by the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). The office offers services such as monitored testing, interpreters, and note-takers for students with disabilities that qualify for these accommodations.
Student Employment Center Smith Hall 110 337-562-4184 1-800-622-3352 ext. 5104 www.mcneese.edu/studemp	Student Employment offers assistance to students seeking work on-campus.
Career & Student Development Center Kaufman Hall suite 117 337-475-5612 1-800-622-3352 ext. 5612 www.mcneese.edu/career	Career Services offers guidance on choosing a career/college major and preparing for a job search. Extensive resources are available online. Additionally, career testing is available for a fee.
Student Life Office Holbrook Student Union (New Ranch) 337-475-5609 https://www.mcneese.edu/studentlife	The Student Life Office provides students with ways to connect to McNeese State University through co-curricular and extracurricular activities.