LETTER NO. 56

TITLE: Tinnerman Nuts

Page 1 of 1

Date: April 21, 1947

Gentlemen:

As you well know, Tinnerman nuts are now being extensively used in both the aircraft and automotive industries. A number of different sizes are employed in the assembly of the Voyager, and to assist you in securing a supply of these we are listing below the types and quantity used per plane. These nuts may be purchased directly from the Tinnerman Products Company, 2064 Fulton Road, Cleveland, Ohio. Do not send orders to us.
