

Concern Statement Activities

Activity 1

Concern Statement	Poorly or Well-Written	Critique
Mom’s mental health issues and laziness prevent her from providing a clean home for the children. The kitchen is very messy and there is no surface clean enough for her children to eat.
Susan’s alcohol abuse has led to loss of employment and non-attendance at scheduled attempts to apply for food stamps, utility assistance, and rent assistance. Susan is in danger of being evicted from her apartment, having utilities shut off, and is unable to provide food and appropriate clothing for her two children, Frannie, (6), and Dennis, (9).
Sharon often sleeps 16 hours a day, and when awake lacks the energy to complete regular daily activities. As a result, she is not able to provide supervision, food, or a safe environment for Shelly (4), Scott (5), and Ryan (7).
Craig is violent with Cassie, his wife, to the point of causing visible injuries. Craig does not seem to care about his children as he becomes violent with Cassie in their presence. Cassie says she is going to leave Craig but never does and puts her needs before the needs of her children.
Dad’s low cognitive functioning makes him incapable of providing for his toddler and new infant. There were an insufficient amount of toys and children’s items in the home to provide an enriching environment for the children.

