ACADEMIC SUPPORT

Frazar Memorial Library

337-475-5725

<https://www.mcneese.edu/library/>

Frazar Memorial Library is the one-stop location for learning and academic support at McNeese. Offering a full range of library services, including an extensive collection of print and digitally-accessible resources, Frazar features interlibrary loan for items not owned by McNeese, publicly-accessible computers and printers for student use, study rooms, reference and instruction, and archives. Access to free online tutoring in more than 60 subject areas is also available through the library's website.

Conveniently located on the banks of Contraband Bayou near McNeese Police and the Student Union, the library is home to the office of Accessibility Services and features free student resources provided by the Write to Excellence Center, Literature Lab and Tutoring Center.

Write to Excellence Center (WTEC)

Kaufman Hall 115 & Frazar Memorial Library

(see below for locations and hours)

337-562-4205 | 1-800-622-3352 ext. 4205

<https://www.mcneese.edu/write-to-excellence-center/>

The WTEC offers feedback on written work to help students become better writers. The staff does not proofread or correct writing, but they do review the writing, discuss it and give suggestions on how to make it stronger. Create an account, view a helpful video about the system and schedule appointments at <https://mcneese.mywconline.com>.

Literature Lab

Kaufman Hall 115 (inside the WTEC)

Tutors help students learn to annotate and create useful notes on readings, understand literary terms, techniques and concepts, decipher poetic and/or archaic language, identify central themes and issues and locate where problems of misinterpretation arise.

Tutoring Center

Kirkman Hall 129 within the Academic Computing & Learning Center

(see below for locations and hours)

<http://aclc.mcneese.edu>

The tutoring center offers tutoring in a wide variety of subjects within the College of Science, Engineering & Mathematics. No appointment needed.
