

מתחברים | MIT-HABRIM | CONNECTIONS

SHUFUNI LOOK AT ME

Established in April 2022, Shufuni creates events and platforms to promote young artists, musicians, and performers from Sderot and other communities around the Gaza envelope. Ohad Peretz, a musician born and raised in Sderot, leads the group's efforts, including monthly events in his hometown, which demonstrate tremendous cooperation among singers, songwriters, and artists from other fields. On October 7, Shufuni lost performers and audience members during the horrific attacks by Hamas

Linor Ein Gedy

Israeli musician and singer-songwriter from Kibbutz Mefalsim on the Gaza border. Linor has served as a cantor of Sha'ar HaNegev reform congregation for over eight years. She performs in different communities throughout Israel

Her music and singing are inspired by everything soulful and oldies from many genres.

Mira Semendoev

was born and raised in Sderot. At the age of 21, she was a finalist on "HaKochav HaBa," the Israeli Idol musical show. Semendoev performs in Hebrew and English, and although she is shy, she transforms into a superstar when on stage. Following the Hamas attacks, they were evacuated by the government from Sderot and lived for over six months in Eilat together with residents from Sderot and other communities in the Gaza Envelope. They have now returned to their home in Sderot

Rotem Meir Levi

Rotem is 38 years old and is a product of the Sderot music scene. He is a singer and player of percussionist. Meir Levi has played alongside many of Israel's best known musicians. Meir Levi is a writer and composer and performs with his own band. Rotem is also involved in educational project, working with youth at risk as well as teaching music in various educational settings.

Daniel Waiss

Daniel Waiss is a musician singer songwriter from Kibbutz Be'eri in the Gaza Envelope.

He survived the Hamas attack on October 7th. That night he managed to leave the kibbutz together with his four siblings.

His parents were missing, and a week later, Daniel's father was found murdered. A month later he was informed by the Israel Defense Forces (IDF) that his mother had been kidnapped into Gaza and they had found her body in a booby-trapped building near the Shefa Hospital in Gaza.

Currently, Waiss performs at live concerts and is working on writing new songs.