

Myriad life cover

Life cover allows you to support your family when you are no longer around

Knowing what life insurance to get is all about understanding how much cover you need to pay off any outstanding debt, or to support your loved ones when you are no longer around or unable to provide for them. The life cover lump sum amount allows your beneficiaries to create an income, ensuring they are financially secure.

Support your family financially when you have life cover

With Momentum Myriad life cover, you're covered if you die from natural or unnatural causes, and you can be sure that it will allow them to replace your income, protect their lifestyle, settle your debt, and help pay for childcare and home maintenance.

- The Death Benefit pays out a lump sum when you die. Ten percent (up to R50 000) will be paid out within one working day after we've received a claim, and the balance as soon as we've received all the required documents. If you are diagnosed with a terminal illness with less than 12 months to live, the full amount will be paid out immediately.
- Last Survivor Death Benefit covers estate duty at a fraction of the price of a normal death benefit, and your spouse won't need to pay any further premiums after your death.
- Funeral Benefit pays up to R100 000 within one working day when one of the insured lives dies.
- Education Protector Benefit pays a cash lump sum for your children's education if you die, become disabled or suffer a functional impairment. And, if you do not claim, we refund all your premiums.

There are additional benefits you can add to your cover – your financial adviser will help you decide.
