

Funeral cover

Funeral arrangements should not include worrying about financing

You need to plan for funeral costs to make sure that

1
loved ones

do not have the financial burden

and

2

expenses are paid

Funerals cost more than that. Even though it's not something we like to think about, we need to plan for it and make sure that our loved ones are not left with costly funeral expenses.

A funeral benefit ensures financial peace of mind with a lump sum payment if you pass away, so those left behind can mourn without worrying about finances.

Covering the funeral costs

Momentum Myriad's Funeral Benefit pays out up to R100 000 within one working day from when the insured life dies.

The benefit provides cover for:
